Beethovenfest Bonn is pleased to inform you that – despite restrictions due to the COVID-19 pandemic – two projects will take place in the 2020 anniversary year as planned. The special concert ‘Missa im Dom’ will take place in the Cologne Cathedral on August 21, 2020. This will be closed to the public but broadcast online via livestream. The ‘BAUPROBE BEETHOVEN’ project by the Berlin artists’ collective Rimini Protokoll – a theatrical inspection of the Beethovenhalle construction site – will also take place as planned in strict accordance with COVID-19 restrictions and guidelines.

We deeply regret that Beethovenfest Bonn 2020 – due to the continued uncertainty surrounding the COVID-19 pandemic – will not take place as planned from September 4 – 27, 2020. Fortunately, we have been able to postpone the festival almost in its entirety, and it will now take place – under the artistic direction of Nik Wagner – from August 20 to September 10, 2021.

For the nearly 60 events originally planned as part of the 2020 festival, the following changes apply:

1. Concerts taking place in 2020
   The concert ‘Missa solemnis’ in the Cologne Cathedral on August 21, 2020 will be closed to the public but broadcast online via livestream. The free tickets to this performance are no longer valid. The four performances of the theatrical inspection of the Beethovenhalle construction site ‘BAUPROBE BEETHOVEN’ from September 12 – 13, 2020 (at 11 am and 3 pm each day) will take place as planned, with tickets still available for advance purchase (see below).

2. Concerts postponed until 2021
   The majority of Beethovenfest Bonn 2020 concerts will be postponed until 2021. Tickets already purchased for these performances remain valid and do not need to be exchanged. You can find the new dates for these performances on the back of this flyer (printed next to the original dates). Ticket holders unable to attend a rescheduled performance may return their tickets for a refund (see below).

3. Cancellation
   Unfortunately, several concerts scheduled for 2020 could not be postponed since the given tour/program/productions could not be rescheduled for 2021. These concerts are listed on the back of this flyer as ‘Cancelled’. Ticket holders for these concerts can also return their tickets for a refund (see below).

Ticket returns
As organizer of Beethovenfest Bonn, we waive our legal right to issue vouchers for returned tickets; instead, we are refunding the net ticket price, not including any advance purchase fees. This applies to all Beethovenfest tickets purchased before May 5, 2020. Due to continued high volume of processing by ticket offices, customers can expect to wait at least eight to ten weeks before their refund is issued.

Returns are being processed via the respective sales channel or ticket office:

1. Online shop and ticket hotline
   Returns/refund requests for tickets purchased through our online shop or by telephone via the Beethovenfest hotline (+49 228 – 50 20 13 13) should be directed to our after-sales service: DERTICKETSERVICE.DE GmbH & Co. KG (or by email at order@derticketservice.de). They will handle all further processing. Online and telephone ticket sales are not handled by Beethovenfest Bonn directly, but through an external agency.

2. Tickets purchased at other ticket offices
   For tickets purchased directly from other external ticket offices, please contact the ticket office directly. If the ticket office has closed temporarily due to the current situation, please contact Beethovenfest Bonn by email at verschiebung@beethovenfest.de and we will find a solution for you.

3. Donations
   Customers who would like to support the work of Beethovenfest Bonn by making a donation can simply request a ticket price refund and then wire a donation in the amount of their choice to Beethovenfest Bonn (Bank: Sparkasse KölnBonn, IBAN: DE47 3795 0198 0000 0026 35). Please send then an email (verschiebung@beethovenfest.de) with the name/address of the person to whom we should address the donation receipt.

You can also become a member of the International Friends of the Beethovenfest Bonn. Information on membership can be found on our homepage at www.beethovenfest.de/kieler-ums.
